Subject: Workshop on Lab to Land Initiative- Ministry of Rural Development Initiative.

Madam/Sir,

Kindly refer to this Institute letter of even no. dated 9th March, 2011 on the subject cited above. In this context, it is informed that the Orientation Workshop on Lab to Land Initiative fixed on has been 24th March, 2011 has been postponed for 2nd April, 2011 at HP State Institute of Rural Development – HIPA, Shimla. The workshop is likely to be attended by Worthy Chief secretary, HP and Joint Secretary (Trg.), Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India. The workshop is being organized with a view to apprise the Heads and Senior Officers of the development department, line department officers of Kandaghat block about the Lab to Land Model of integrated development with a holistic approach. We expect from Heads and other Senior Officers of the development departments besides Deputy Commissioner, line department officers of Kandaghat block and Block Development Officer of the selected block to attend this workshop. A brief presentation of 5-10 minutes indicating the details of different schemes (Central, State Sector or other sources) which aim at well being of the rural community has not been received till date from your office. This presentation should highlight the scheme, its objectives and procedures for availing the benefits by rural masses under the said schemes. The presentation and confirmation of participants may be conveyed in advance to Nodal Officers indicted in the Background note appended. In addition to this a write up of above schemes in soft copy with photographs has also not been received which may also be supplied by e-mail to address: sirdhimachal@gmail.com with the following details:

- a) What are the benefits available to rural masses under the scheme
- b) What are the entitlements to avail the benefits of the scheme
- c) How are those benefits available to people, procedures thereof
- d) Name of the nodal officer in the block to avail the benefits

You are, therefore, requested to kindly make it convenient to attend the workshop along with one or two senior officers of your department and make a presentation of the schemes pertaining to your department that aim at well being of the rural community. It is also added that the details of the schemes as mentioned above may be supplied by email to sirdhimachal@gmail.com by 26th March, 2011. A line in confirmation will be highly appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

Additional Director
