➤ Selection Criteria for District/State and U19 (B & G) Team/individual Chess Event

All the participants of winning team at District/ State level school chess event are eligible for selection trial tournament- beyond all criteria set for further level chess trial event. • There will be compulsorily a selection Trial for all other teams (including 5 players of winner team), which will be an individual event conducted on tie breaks mentioned below- for those teams (excluding winner team), who fulfill the following criteria-

- 1) The players - who have played all round(or minimum one round less then maximum round for tournament) on 1st, 2nd ,3rd, and 4th boards remains unbeaten including draws and scored 75percent as their win rate are eligible for selection trial irrespective of their team standings.
- 2) The players- who played on 1st, 2nd ,3rd and 4th boards all-round (or minimum one round less then maximum round for tournament) and scored 75 percent win rate and their team standings fall within top half are eligible for selection trial. For example, if 17 teams (for odd number of teams) are participating in District/State level school level tournament then top half will be $17+1=18$ divided by 2=9. So, team standing should be at 9 or in top half i.e(team final standing between 1 to 9).
- 3) The players on 5th Board (reserve player) must have played minimum of two rounds or scored 50 percent win rate and their team standings fall within top half (team calculation for top half will be as per (rule 2) will be eligible for selection trial. For example, a reserve player has played 3 rounds and scored one wins and one draw (score 1.5 point) and his scoring percentage is $(1.5/3) \times 100 = 50\%$ including forfeit).
- 4) The selection Trial will be conducted as an individual event with applicable Tie- Breaks for individual Event. Selection Trial will be conducted in Rapid format having minimum 15 minutes to each player or as per the situation suitably decided by the Chief Arbiter/Convener and the following tie breaks are applicable throughout the state in school games (till next amendment in this regard) and top 5 players will be selected for next level event.

1. Buchholz cut-1 2. Buchholtz 3. Sonneborn Berger 4. Direct encounter 5. Greater no. of wins including forfeits.
6. No. of wins with black pieces (if required) for selection trial/individual event.

For team event, the following tie breaks will be applicable-

- 1.Match point 2. Direct encounter based on match point. 3.Game point 4. Sonneborn Berger 5. Berlin

5) In a team event, there should be minimum 3 players to participate and maximum no. of players will be 5

6) The tournament will be conducted on Swiss manager and number of rounds will be decided on the basis of number of teams for team event and no. of players for individual/selection tournament. To decide number of rounds- for example- $2^{(\text{raise to the power})}$ no. of round should be equal/greater than the no. of teams for team event and no. of players for the individual event.

7) The Tie Break Criteria being used and number of rounds, along with default time and any other changes must be displayed before the start of the event on the notice board.

8) The aforesaid criteria will be applicable throughout the state. 9) However, the above-mentioned selection rules will be subject to change in future according to FIDE laws/ State Practical observation during the event / implementation/ incorporating the necessary changes in favor of individual/ team chess game spirit.
