Copy of letter No.1(4)/Pen.Unit/82, dated 10th January, 1983, from K.S. Mahadovan Under Secretary to the Government of India, /Bharat Sarkar Ministry of Home Affairs/Grih Mantralaya Department of Personnel & Administrative Reforms (Karmik Aur Prashasnik Sudhar Vibhag. Addressed to all the State and Union Territories Administration.

Subject:- Payment of Interest on with-held DCRG to Government servants who are exonerated on the conclusion of disciplinary/judicial proceedings, against them.

The undersigned is directed to say that while providing for payment of interest on the delayed payment of death-cum-retirement gratuity at the rate of 8% per annum for the period beyond 3 months after the gratuity becomes due vide Department of Personnel & Administrative Reforms O.M.No. 7(1)-P.U./79 dated the 11th July, 1979, it was also stipulated that cases of Government Servants against whom disciplinary or judicial proceedings have been instituted, gratuity if allowed to be drawn by the competent authority on the conclusion of such proceedings, will be deemed to have fallen due on the date of issue of orders by the competent authority. In order to mitigate the hardship to the Government servants who, on the conclusion of the proceedings are fully exonerated, it has been decided that the interest on delayed payment of DCRG may also be allowed in their case, in accordance with the aforesaid instructions. In other words, in such cases, the gratuity will be deemed to have fallen due on the date following the date of retirement for the purpose of payment of interest on delayed payment of gratuity. The benefit of these instructions will, however, not be available to such of the Government servants who die during the pendency of judicial/disciplinary proceedings against them and against whom such proceedings are consequently dropped.

2. These orders shall take effect from the date of issue of this O.M.

3. In so far as persons serving in Indian Audit and Accounts Department are concerned, these orders have been issued after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General of India.
