

GOVERNMENT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH
FINANCE DEPARTMENT (PENSION CELL)

No. Fin(Pen)A(3)-1/91

Dated Shimla-2, 13/8/1991

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject:-

Resignation from Government Service by Government employees for Studies/Training counting of past service for purpose of pension.

The undersigned is directed to say that as per provisions of rule-26 of the CCS (Pension) Rules, 1972, in cases where Government servants resign from Government service, no benefit of past service is admissible. If resignation is submitted for taking up another Government service, then past service is counted for pensionary benefits by treating this resignation as Technical. In some cases the Government servants resign from Government service for studies or Training and are re-appointed in Government service later on. Proposal relating to allowing benefit of past service to such Government servants for purpose of pension/Gratuity was under consideration of the Himachal Pradesh Government for sometime past.

Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to order that such Government servants who resign from service for carrying out studies/undergoing some training and are appointed in Government service later on will be allowed benefit of their past service for pension/gratuity subject to fulfilment of the following conditions:-

- (a) The resignation is submitted by Government servant for carrying out studies/undergoing training and in resignation letter, there should be a special mention that it is being submitted for above reasons.
- (b) Service rendered by the Govt. servant before resignation and re-appointment should be under Himachal Pradesh Government only.

(c) Period of interruption in service issue i.e. period between date of acceptance of resignation and up to date of re-appointment in service shall not be counted as qualifying services.

(d) Past service will be counted as qualifying service only for purpose of gratuity and pension. Other benefits like pay fixation, seniority, leave, leave encashment etc. will not be admissible in respect of past service.

(e) The interruption between two spells i.e. period between date of acceptance of resignation and date of re-appointment shall be automatically condoned. However this will not count as qualifying service. No special sanction will be required for this purpose.

(f) Provisions of this Office Memorandum shall apply to all employees who retire after issue of this office Memorandum.

All Departments are requested to allow benefits of past service in cases referred to above subject to fulfillment of conditions mentioned above. Concurrence/approval of Finance Department is not necessary in cases covered under provisions of this office Memorandum. Appointing Authority can issue a sanction quoting this Office Memorandum while ensuring that condition prescribed above are satisfied. Necessary entries may be made in the service book accordingly.
