

No. FIN(G)A(3)-1/85
GOVERNMENT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH
FINANCE (REGULATIONS) DEPARTMENT.

Dated Shimla-2, the 29/6/1983.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject:-

Counting of period spent on training before appointment to service as qualifying for pension.

The undersigned is directed to say that the Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to order that in case of Class-III and IV employees, who after appointment to a post are required to undergo prescribed departmental training relating to their job before they are put on regular employment, training period may be treated as qualifying service for pension, if the training is followed immediately by an appointment. This benefit will be admissible to all Class-III and IV employees even if the officers concerned are not given the scale of pay of the post but only a nominal allowance.

2. This decision will come into force with effect from 31-12-1983.

3. To avoid mistakes, two examples are given. The above benefit will be available to the Naib Tahsildars, who after selection as such are required to undergo departmental training before they are posted as regular Naib-Tahsildars. The benefit will not be available to persons who undergo JBT training, as this training is a mere training, and appointment to a JBT post is made subsequently from among the trained persons.

4. This decision may kindly be brought to the notice of all offices under your control for their guidance and compliance.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject:- Counting of period spent on training before appointment to service as qualifying for pension.

The undersigned is directed to say that the Staff Side of the National Council (JCM) had suggested inter-alia that the service rendered by an employee during the training period before his regular appointment to the grade may be treated as qualifying service for pension.

2. The request made by the Staff Side of the National Council (JCM) has been examined and it has now been decided that in respect of Group 'C' and 'D' employees, who are required to undergo departmental training relating to jobs before they are put on regular employment, training period upto one year may be treated as qualifying service for pension, if the training is followed immediately by an appointment. This benefit will be admissible to all Group 'C' and 'D' employees even if the officers concerned are not given the scale of pay of the post but only a nominal allowance.

3. The Ministry of Finance etc. are requested to bring the above decision to the notice of all officers working under them including those in the attached and subordinate offices for their guidance.

4. In so far as persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department are concerned, these orders issue after consultation with the Comptroller & Auditor General of India.

5. These orders come into force with effect from the date of issue.

No. 28/37/86-P&PW
Government of India
Ministry of Personnel, P.G. and Pensions
(Department of Pension and P.W.)

New Delhi, dated, the 12 Sept., 1986.

Subject:- Counting of period spent on training before appointment to service as qualifying for pension -

The undersigned is directed to refer to the Department of Personnel & Administrative Reforms No. 28/32/81-Pension Unit dt. 22.12.1983 on the subject mentioned above and to say that the Staff Side of the National Council (JCM) raised a demand that the restriction of one year imposed in respect of treating the period of training as qualifying service for retirement benefits in respect of Group C & D employees may be removed. The matter has been discussed by the Committee of the National Council in a meeting held on 25.10.1984 and the Government agreed to remove this restriction. Accordingly, the words 'upto one year' appearing in para 2 of the OM dt. 22.12.1983 may be treated as deleted.

The Ministry of Finance etc. are requested to bring the above decision to the notice of all officers working under them including those in the attached and subordinate offices for their guidance.

In so far as persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department are concerned, these orders issue after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor General of India.
