Subject:- Regarding teacher training.

It has come to the notice of the undersigned that various teacher trainings are being conducted/proposed for the schools through various agencies including SSA. Whereas school annual examination in Summer closing schools are to be conducted in the month of March,2020 for which very few time has left for revision. Moreover, after the removal of no detention policy in 5th & 8th classes, it becomes imperative to give time to teachers and students for revision of syllabus.

Keeping in view of the above, It is hereby directed that no teachers of Summer closing school should be sent for any training before the conduct of these exams unless the orders in this regard is given by Director Elementary Education in writing. You are therefore directed to inform all concerned and strict compliance be ensured.
