Home(vig.) E(3)-14/2010-Part-IV
Government of Himachal Pradesh.
Department of Home (Vigilance)

From

The Principal Secretary (Vig.) to the Government of Himachal Pradesh.

To

All Administrative Secretaries to the Government of Himachal Pradesh.

Dated Shimla-2,

6/4/2018

Subject:-

High Court order dated 18.11.2013 in CWP No. 4916/2010 Sher Singh Vs State of H.P. & others (Instruction thereof –regarding posting of officers/officials having doubtful integrity).

Sir

I am directed to refer to this department letter of even number dated 25.11.2013 & 11.01.2016 on the subject cited above (which can be downloaded from the Vigilance link of Home Department in the official website of State Government), whereby all departments were requested to comply strictly with the following decision of Government and to take regular review of decisions after interval of six months:-

- i) The officers/ officials, having doubtful integrity, should not be posted on sensitive posts except in unavoidable circumstance.
- ii) In un-avoidable circumstances, the approval of the highest authority i.e. Hon'ble Chief Minister should be obtained before posting of such officers/officials on sensitive posts, even during non-ban period.
- iii) The fact that the name of officer(s)/ official(s) has been included in the "List of Officers of Doubtful integrity" should be brought to the notice of the Hon'ble Chief Minister while putting up proposals for the transfer/posting of such officers.
- iv) That efforts be made continually that such officers, if posted on sensitive posts, are removed from such posts at the earliest opportunity.

But from the perusal of information received from various departments in connection with filing of affidavit on behalf of worthy CS, in CWPIIL No. 111/2017, it has been observed that the above mentioned decisions are not being adhered strictly by some departments as some officers having doubtful integrity are still posted on the sensitive posts in some departments.

You are, therefore again requested to ensure that the above said decisions are adhered strictly by the departments under your control and implementation of said decisions is also reviewed regularly after interval of 6 months.

Yours faithfully,

Special Secretary (Vigilance) to the Government of Himachal Pradesh

Subject:-

The High Court's direction in CWP No 4916/2010 Sher Singh Vs State of H.P. & other (regarding completion of departmental proceedings within stipulated period of three months).

Sir

I am directed to refer to this department letter of even number dated 17.09.2011 & 30.01.2016 on the subject cited above (which can be downloaded from the Vigilance link of Home Department in the official website of State Government), whereby all departments were requested for ensuring that :-

- i) The departmental enquires/proceedings against officers/ officials, involved in Vigilance cases are completed within 3 months from the date of 1st hearing taken by the Inquiry Officer.
- ii) The status of such enquires/ proceedings are reviewed regularly by the departments, Corporations, Boards & other autonomous institutions under your control after interval of 6 months.

But from the perusal of informations received from various departments in connection with CWPI No.111/2017, it has been observed that the above mentioned instruction are not being complied strictly by some departments as in some cases the departmental proceedings are still pending for more than three month from the date of first hearing taken by Inquiry Officer and the status of enquiry is also not being reviewed regularly after six month.

You are, therefore again requested to ensure that the above said decisions are adhered strictly by the departments under your control and status of enquiries is also reviewed regularly after interval of 6 months.

Yours faithfully,

Special Secretary (Vigilance) to the Government of Himachal Pradesh
