Preface:

Before 1966, the Department of Fisheries, H.P. acted as a wing of state Forest Department and its main mandate was to identify and bring on record all fish resources available in the state. It has been assigned the status of independent Department in the year 1966. Thereafter sustainable utilization and development of fisheries resources through scientific approach have been taken up by the Department to maximize fish production, employment and to ensure socio-economic development of the fisher community. There are two big and three small reservoirs having total area of 43,785 ha, 3000 km of riverine length - out of which 600 km are trout waters, besides 805 ha. of pond and 617 ha high altitude natural lake resources. The headwaters of state riverine stretches are bestowed with exotic trout's and indigenous fish species and lower stretches accommodate commercial fish species like Indian Major Carps, Exotic Carps, Mahseer & Mystus species. Table fish production from both capture & culture was around 13401.68 MT annually which could offer 2.00 kg. per capita of fish. The Department provides direct and indirect employment to around 11,000 families. Himachal Pradesh is the first state in the union of India which has not only successfully implemented trout farming technology borrowed from Norway, but has also successfully disseminated this technology, in the private sector.

The Department is headed by Director- cum- warden of Fisheries in H.P. and supported by Deputy Director of Fisheries and two Assistant Director of Fisheries under technical section, besides, Engineers and ministerial staff at the Directorate. One district in the state is headed by Deputy Director of Fisheries and eight districts are headed by Assistant Director of Fisheries, Kinnaur district is under the control of Assistant Director of Fisheries, Shimla besides Hamirpur District by Senior Fisheries Officer. There is one more Pong reservoir division headed by Assistant Director of Fisheries.

Citizen Charter of the Department of Fisheries, H.P. will provide glimpse of various state and central sector schemes being implemented by the Department and acquaint the fishers/ fish farmers and other clients /stake holders with guidelines, pattern of assistance, eligibility etc. under these schemes for availing services. However, charter is not a legal document to sue against any stake holder/client etc .
