4. All Deputy Commissioners in Himachal Pradesh.

Subject: Candidates recommended by the PSC/SSC for appointment to State Services/posts- delay in joining revival of offer of appointment after their cancellation - determination of seniority thereof.

Sir,

I am to refer to the subject cited above and to say that it has come to the notice of the Government that in certain cases, the candidates recommended by the PSC/SSC or any other recruiting authority for appointment take long time to join by seeking extension in joining time and in spite of the long delay in joining the candidates are allowed the benefit of seniority on the basis of their initial selection. The question whether in such cases it would not be desirable to depress the seniority of the candidates who are appointed on the result of the selections by interviews/examination was considered and it has been decided that the following procedure may be adopted now. This procedure will be applicable both in case of (a) selection through interview and (b) examinations.

- (i) In the offers of appointment issued by different Ministries/Departments, it should be clearly indicated that the offer would lapse if the candidates did not join within a specified period (which shall not normally exceed one month).

- (ii) If, however, within the period stipulated, a request is received from the candidate(s) for extension of time, it may be considered by the Ministries/ Departments and if they are satisfied, an extension for a limited period of three months may be granted but extension beyond three months should not be granted liberally and it may be granted only as an exception where facts and circumstances so warrant and in any case only upto a maximum of six months from the date of issue of the original offer of appointment. An offer of appointment would lapse automatically after the expiry of six months from the date of issue of the original offer of appointment. The candidates who join within the above period of six months will have their seniority fixed under the seniority rules applicable to the service/post concerned to which they are appointed, without any depression of seniority.
- (iii) If, even after the extension(s) if any granted by the Ministry/Departments, a candidate does not join within the stipulated time (which shall not exceed a period of six months), the order of appointment should lapse automatically.
- (iv) An offer of appointment which has lapsed, should not ordinarily be revived later, except in exceptional circumstances and on grounds of public interest. The Commission should in all cases be consulted before such offers are revived.
- (v) In a case where after the lapsing of the offer, the offer is revived in consultation with the Public Service Commission as mentioned in sub-para (iv) above, the seniority of the candidates concerned would be fixed below those who have already joined the posts concerned within the prescribed period of six months; and if the candidate joins before the candidates of the next selection/examination join, he should be placed below all others of his batch. If however, the candidate joins after some or all the candidates of the next selection/examination have joined, he should be:

(a) in cases of selection through interview, placed at the bottom of all the candidates of the next batch.

(b) in the case of examination, allotted to the next years batch and placed at the bottom.

2. These instructions may also be brought to the notice of all concerned for strict compliance.

Yours faithfully,

(Tarun Shridhar)
