Sub: Implementation of 'BHAVISHYA' an online Pension Sanction & Payment Tracking System, for processing the pension cases of AIS officers retiring from Central government (and opt to draw pension form Central Government)- reg.

11/8/21
SS(ers)
The undersigned is directed to refer to the above subject and instruction issued by this Department communication 25014/2/2002-AIS(II) dt.11.04.2007 in a measure for simplification of procedure for payment of pension wherein, it was inter alia decided that "All retiring AIS officers would uniformly have the option of drawal of pension through Government of India or through the State Government. Authorization of pension for members of the services retiring from State Government would continue with the State Governments. However, officers who retire from the State Government can now opt for payment of pension from the Central Government or the State Government. Similarly, officers retiring from Government of India may opt for authorization of pension through Government of India or the State Government.

2. In order to ensure further simplification, it has been decided that;

- SOUP-I)
11/8/21
11/8/21
i) processing of pension cases of AIS officers retiring from Central government and those who opt to draw pension from the Central Government, shall be done through 'BHAVISHYA' an online Pension Sanction & Payment Tracking System; and
- ii) the requisite forms for processing pension cases under CCS(Pension) Rules, 1972 will be used for processing pension cases of officers of AIS retiring from Central Government.

3. This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.

Yours faithfully
