3. Vocational courses

Vocational courses prepare people for a specific trade. It directly develops expertise in techniques related to technology, skill and scientific technique to span all aspects of the trade. This may also include ITI, Polytechnic ,Certificate course etc.

The highlights of the scheme are mentioned below:

I. Amount provided to PwD

National Trust will provide a specific amount per course to a PwD which will generally cover fees, transportation, books, out of pocket expenses (OPEs) etc.

The frequency and the maximum duration of funding to the PwD by National Trust will be based upon specific course structure pertaining to each category of the above mentioned courses. The defined frequency can be either of the below depending on the course structure:

- Monthly
- Trimester wise
- Six monthly or Semester wise
- Annually

The maximum time duration allowed for the PwD to complete the course would be defined by the competent authority from the concerned Institute and the work duration cannot be different from those available for other categories.

II. Attendance based transportation

National Trust would provide a defined amount for transportation allowance to the PwD for each course, provided PwD satisfies the attendance criteria of a minimum of 50% during the defined period of the course structure (monthly or trimester wise or semester wise or annually)

III. Duration of course

National Trust shall provide funding for the course undertaken by PwD for the time period which is the maximum time allowed by the Institute for the completion of the course or the time PwD has taken to complete the course whichever is less. This is irrespective of whether or not the PwD is able to complete the course.

1.3 Funding Pattern

National Trust will provide funding to the PwD depending upon the course being taken up, as detailed below:

I. Recurring Cost

National Trust shall pay a specified amount depending upon the category of course PwD is enrolled in. The amount funded by National Trust is mentioned in the following table. Important points to be noted for reimbursement under recurring cost are:

- Frequency of disbursement shall be decided at the time of enrolment in the scheme and shall be based on the course structure.
- National Trust will reimburse the amount to PwD either as per the scheme guidelines or as per actuals, whichever amount is less on submission of proof of expenses except out of pocket expenses (OPE). PwD can claim OPE upto a maximum of 10% of the total amount mentioned in the following table for each category of courses.

For example, in the case of professional courses OPE can be upto a maximum of INR 520.

- This amount is final and cannot be enhanced even if the PwD needs to pay more. The scheme does not cover 100% of the fee but a major part of it.
- Amount mentioned in following table is inclusive of the amount paid to the PwD by any central/ state/district government or department or private organizations for the same course and purpose.

II. Transportation Cost

National Trust shall fund (reimburse) transportation cost of PwD for the duration of course as per the scheme. For availing the transportation cost, PwD needs to have a minimum attendance of 50% during the defined period and provide written proof of attendance from the Institute. Transportation cost will be reimbursed to the PwDs either as per the scheme guidelines or as per actuals, whichever amount is less.

The funds under both the categories will be reimbursed only to the Bank account of the PwD and in no case cash will be disbursed. Funds allocated for each of the course are as follows:

S. No.	Category	Amount (in INR)	Frequency of funds disbursement
I.	Professional course	5,200/- per PwD per month (Including any amount given by the Central/State/District Government or Department/Private organization etc.)	As per the course structure it could be any one of the below : 1. Monthly 2. Trimester wise 3. Six monthly or Semester wise 4. Annually
